FLED FROM A HOSPITAL IN UNDERSHIRT

Patient Smelled Ether and Feared Surgeons Were About to Carve Him.

RAN LIKE A SPRINTER

Leaped Down 25-Foot Wall, and Reached Home in Advance of All Pursuers.

Fearing, when he smelled the fumes of ether used on a patient in a cot next Charles Hartling, twenty-four years old, of No. 550 East One Hundred in a collision on the Subway extension vard yesterday, leaped out of his bed in Lebanon Hospital to-day. He was spite of the surgeons and nurses. caped from the building and ran to his home, several blocks away.

He leaped down a twenty-five-foot wall from the hospital grounds to Cau'dwell avenue, receiving only a few bruises in the descent. He ran so fast that his pursuers, including Bicycle Patrolman Webb, of the Morrisania station, were outdistanced. When reached his house he ran upstairs to his wife, to whom he has been married only a few months, and told her that and be cut up for nothing, so he had

By the time Hartling's wife recovered from her astonishment and produced clothes for her husband, Patrolman Webb appeared and wanted to arrest him. But his wife refused to let him be taken away. He is now under treatment by a private physician, who says he will recover. He signed a release of all blame to the hospital.

Hartling was caught between two cars on the elevated extension of the Subway and badly crushed. The surnons at Lebanon Hospital said he suiened internal injuries, but they admitted that he ran like a man who was guite whole.

A large crowd joined in the extraor dinary chase, but most of those in it evidently thought him crazy and dared not interfere with him. He ran down tieth street and then west to his home

DRESSED SHOW WINDOW, THEN TOOK HIS LIFE Actor Dazzled Waiter with His The Estimates for Coming Year

Old-Time Employee of Gorham Company Finished Duties Before Suicide.

After dressing the Broadway window of the Gorham Manufacturing Company at Nine centh street with his usual care and skill, James J. Kavanagh, who has been employed by the company for sixteen years went leisurely upstairs at 8.45 o'clock to-day to the wash room on the fourth form. This is true of the lesser departments, and when the bigger departments are twenty-two, of No. 264 Clarkson street, twenty-two, of No. 264 Clarkson street, and when the bigger departments estimate, such as the Police. Fire and a clerk out of work, locked up in the Educational are made it is thought that they will all show large increases.

Which he can be the clipse is coming to-dity departments for the ensuing year all show an increase over the demands for the last year.

This is true of the lesser departments, and when the bigger departments estimate, such as the Police. Fire and Educational are made it is thought that they will all show large increases. 8.45 o'clock to-day to the wash room on the fourth floor, put a revolver to his head and blew out his brains.

More than a score of the salesman's fellow employees were at work on the floor and heard the report of the pixel.

Count to day to the wash room on the day of the salesman's fellow employees were at work on the floor and heard the report of the pixel.

Count to day to the wash room on the floor and heard the report of the pixel.

floor and heard the report of the pistol. Court, to-day, Davis was sent to the Lawrence Burke, of No. 2707 Creston Island for six months and Maxwell was avenue, the Bronx, rushed into the wash fined $3, which means, since he was room and found the suicide stretched penniless, three days in jail. out on the floor. He had died instantly. Davis and Maxwell entered the res-The man was ferty years old and taurant and the former ordered a plat lived at No. 101 Decatur street, Brook- of champagne. They drank it, and lyn. His wife is believed to be in Chi-cago. Neither his employers nor his not paid for the second pint, the waits fellow salesmen can assign any motive for his self-destruction.

He had worked steadily for the Gorham concern for sixteen years, with the exception of several months spent in Chicago. He was held in the highest esteam by his complexers upon the self-destruction.

The would pay its olil when he flashed what looked to the waster to be $50 bill.

The wider apologized and the wine flowed until ten pints had disappeared, the self-destruction of the waster to be $50 bill.

The pald for the second pint, the walter had been appeared to be dightly insuited, decarring that he would pay its olil when he flashed what looked to the waster to be $50 bill.

The pald for the second pint, the walter had suggested that they might settle. Davis had his head of the walter had he would pay its olil when he flashed what looked to the waster to be $50 bill.

The pald for the second pint, the walter had he would pay its olil when he had his held drinking. Then he flashed what looked to the waster to be $50 bill.

The pald for the second pint, the walter had held the would pay its olil when he had his held drinking. Then he flashed what looked to the waster to be $50 bill.

The pald for the second pint, the walter had held to the walter had been had been appeared to be dightly insuited, decarring that he would pay its olil when he had his held to the waster to be $50 bill.

the exception of sexteen years, with the exception of several months spend in Chicago. He was held in the highest exteem by his employers, was a man of quier disposition, and as far as was known led an exemplary life.

When Annancer Polery, of the Gorham
When Annancer Polery, of the Gorham
of Whe could offer any explanation of Whe returned to discust the matter, and said that it was affairs publicly.

The window the salesman dressed beforce he was upstained and the could not its affairs publicly.

The window the salesman dressed beforce he was upstained the could not its affairs publicly.

The window the salesman dressed beforce he was upstained the could not be trophy to this said the transport of the could not be trophy to the salesman dressed be force he was upstained to the could not be trophy to the salesman dressed be force he was upstained to the could not be trophy to the salesman dressed be force he was upstained before hims
affairs publicly.

The window the salesman dressed be
force he was upstained before hims
affairs publicly.

The window the salesman dressed be
force he was upstained before hims
affairs publicly.

The window the salesman dressed be
force he was upstained before hims
affairs publicly.

The window the salesman dressed be force he was the man dressed be for New Yorkers:

Week, but Some Were Proviously Afflicted.

WHE Establish More Cigar Stores

Will Establish More Ci

Agency Company will establish at mead say Good-by. He has been awfully descondent lately, as he fell does and seven and seven as he fell does and seven and seven and seven and seven and seven as he fell does and seven and seve

MRS. VANDERBILT AGAIN LEADS COTILLON SEEK MISSING

MRS. CORNELIUS VANDERDILT SE

WITH STAGE CASH ASK MORE CASH

which he and his companion had drunk the Board of Estimate from the various in Fisher's restaurant, at No. 119 Third city departments for the ensuing year ly to Go Up.

CITY BOARDS

Show Considerable Increase

But the Tax Rate Isn't Like-

While the Budget will necessarily be the eyeball.

increased, according to the latest con-servative estimate to about five millions from last year's figures of $110,000,000, reau with the announcement that at no alarm need be felt that the tax will the time the eclipse is making its be increased for the full value taxation debut, so to speak, the stage of action is the opinion of officials of the Finance That is one exasperating feature about TVP-000 FEWER get up early or stay up all night. Many eclipse parties have been arranged. Refreshments ordered for eclipse parties are mostly of a liquid character.

NEWPORT, Aug. 29 .- For the first cotillons. It was, also her first dance ime since the death of her husband for many years. mourning. At a ball in honor of her the events of the season. There were youngest daughter, Miss Gladys, given by Mrs. Vanderbilt at The Breakers last tifully illuminated by colored electric than Jnight, she danced, leading one of the lights. The tables were decorated with sent.

Deacon were present. It was remarked that Senator and Mrs. Depew were able requested goods on consignment there sent.

PAID FOR WINE

Wad and Treated to Ten

Pints, but His Money Was !

Because he offered "stage money" in payment for ten pints of champagne

Not the Right Kind.

James Hazen Hyde and Miss Edith purpose of going in business for himself

TO SEE THE SUN

Cloudy Weather Predicted-

Event Will Occur Soon

After Daybreak.

However, there is not much of a eclipses of the sun. They generally fall on a cloudy day.

In case it is not cloudy to-morrow morning persons destrous of seeing the mcon pass between the sun and the earth, hiding nearly four-fifths of the surface of the orb of day, will have to

ECLIPSE HERE

SLIM CHANCE

JEWELLER AND $50,000 GEMS

Castleberg, Rich, Left $25,-000 Worth Behind in Hotel.

Detectives, personally directed by Robert Pinkerton, are searching the country for Robert Castleberg, Jr., of Washington, D. C., who disappeared from Saratoga about fifteen days ago with about $25,000 worth of diamonds bepankroll amounting to probably $50,000, which was his own. 'He has been card from once since his disappearince, but sleuths who hurried on the due failed to find him.

Castleberg, who is forty-eight years old, married, and the son of the head the Castleberg National Jewelry Company, of Washington, got the jewels on consignment from New York dealers to sell to lucky gamblers at Saratoga. He registered at the United States Hotel upon reaching the Spa, but did not attempt to do any business for a couple of days. Then he was missed. In his room three packages of jewelry worth about $25,000 were found. The local firms that intrusted diamonds and other gems to Mr. Castlebut the Pinkertons are busy just the same. Robert Pinkerton is an intimate friend of the missing man,

There is no suspicion that Mr. Castle-perg deliberately ran off with the jewels. He is worth $100,000, and his family could supply him with that much more if he should be in need of it. Never theless his creditors are seeking to disover his whereabouts and his family. while professing to believe he took a side trip from Saratoga and became ill, are assisting in the search.

иовинов

ANSON RUCK de

Lawyer Kuck that He Will

so, the girl who is able to cook wins.

That fact will be thoroughly demonstrated to-morrow when Julius Anson

Kuck, jr., leads to the altar Miss Lena of the bride, Mrs. Abbie Johnson, No.

Make Her His Bride.

It is pointed out that if Mr. Castleberg had desired to secure the jewelry in trusted to him by dishonest means he would not have left $25,000 worth behind him in the United States Hotel, Another consideration lies in the fact that r. Castleberg could have secured twice the value of the jewelry he took away his connection with the firm of which his father is the head and which has credit for any amount with the is business, which declined after insband's death. A Harry Lohr Mrs. Vanderbilt led large time-payment business with the harry Lohr Mrs. Vanderbilt led large time-payment business is ernment cierks, and the business is profitable and safe. For this reason its profitable and safe. For this reason its trade is sought by New York dealers in Whitehouse led the second co- with his father's firm was for the he obtained. Those to whom he applied he obtained. Those to whom he applied for diamonds on consignment were Soi Lindendorn, of No. 170 Broadway; Bonner & Co., of No. 51 Malden lane; B. H. Davis & Co., of No. 53 Malden lane; B. H. Davis & Co., of No. 59 Nassan street, and Charles Marks, a dealer in precious stones. He received in all gemr to the value of $00,000.

Diamonds on consignment are on dail. When called for they are either to be produced or their equivalent in cash, or evidence of sale and contract for payment. It is no uncommon thing for firms to intrust salesmen with hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of Maturally while tracing him the firms have been cautious and avoiding publicity, not caring to have a false impression get abroad, where it might be misunderstood by persons not in the trade and unfamiliar with the customs obtaining.

The fine and his appetite excellent. While the five Department was called. A number of men went out on the jettines when after a night in some student's room where some one celebrated as a maker of Welsh rarebits presided sa a maker of Welsh rarebits presided be had a feeling that he was fit only the large of the man are plan will obviate that possibility. This will be hidden by a curtain of clouds. Commissioner Best Confident that Work on Big East River Structures Will Be Pushed to Quick Completion.

BRIDGE DELAY AT AN END NOW

> hat the delay on the work of the Mannattan and Blackwell's Island Bridges will soon be over. In regard to the Manhattan Bridge, the Commissioner said to-day that the Pennsylvania Steel Company, which nad been awarded the contract for the teel work, in consequence of which the Bridge Commissioner had been made defendant in a sult to set it aside, had on its own motion been made a de-'endant' with the Commissisoner and asked the Court to have the bond I the plaintiff increased from $1,000 to 500,000 on the ground that the Pennylvania Steel Company would suffer reat loss on penalties, as the work aust be finished at a stipulated time. "If the motion to increase the bond s granted," continued Commissisoner s granted." continued Commissioner est, "it is likely that the suit may be supped, and in that case the work will e pushed to a speedy conclusion.

"As to the delay on the Blackwell's stand Bridge, I have received information that a special car has been built rong enough to carry the heavy casting, and that the cassing has been reloved to the finishing factory and will ach here in a very few days. Then the work will go on without further delay."

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

COOKED HERSELF BODY OF MAN INTO HIS HEART UNDER CONEY ISLAND JETTY Welsh Rarebit Made by Miss Lena Johnson So Appealed to

CHAFING DISH WIZARD AND MAN WON BY HER COOKING.

Storm Rips Away Part of Piling, Revealing a Mystery.

Williams Johnson. The wedding will away about 100 feet of the big jetty marriage, it is understood, will take be celebrated in the home of the mother running out into the ocean at the foot of the Ocean Boulevard, Coney Island, 36 Windham street, Willimantic, Conn. and revealed to the lifeguards on the called to the chair of cookery in the internationally famous school of Washington. Mr. Kuck was a student at Columbia, wrestling with torts and other legal terms. His digestion was fine and his appetite excellent. While the food he had was good, there were obtaining.

All the importers have consulted lawyers and are doing all they can to clear up the mystery of Castleberg's

He had a feeling that he was fit only for a sinker for a deep-sea fishing line.

He visited Washington, and there it was he met Miss Johnson. She was plainly see his trousers, shoes and he had a feeling that he was fit only for a sinker for a deep-sea fishing line. Nothing but the legs of the man are visible from the jetty. The guards say for a sinker for a deep-sea fishing line. He visited Washington, and there it was he met Miss Johnson. She was expaining now nutritious the succulent rarebit really was, and how it was enhanced when it changed its nationality from Weish to Yorkship and became a buck by the addition of the egg.

Mr. Kuck grew hungry, and when Miss Johnson stirred the cheese and other ingredients and explained inta at the proper consistency in boiling there came an aroma which could be mistaken, telling that the rarebit was ready for the palate, he became rayent wind you—she poured the steaming be wished and you—she poured the steaming frarebit and Mr. Kuck ate it.

There was a demonstration of the proper way to make a chicken croquette, and the croquette followed the farebit. Mr. Kuck went home, and on his face there was a satisfied smile. In the morning he did not feel as though he were a candidate for an insane astisfiers roady to eat him un. He had at last eaten the perfect rarebit and the reduction of the proper way to make a chicken croquette, and the croquette followed the farebit. Mr. Kuck went home, and on his face there was a satisfied smile. In the morning he did not feel as though he were a candidate for an insane astisfiers roady to eat him un. He had at last eaten the perfect rarebit and the road to real habtiness was hone. They had been bleasant. There were no terrible monble of nastry was never discussed but the formation of the proper way to make a chicken croquette and the road to real habtiness was through the were a candidate for an insane astronous was a satisfied smile. In the morning he did not feel as though he were a candidate for an insane astronous was the weekly of the proper way to make a chicken croquette, and the road to real habtiness without the read to real habtiness with the road to real habtiness was through the chaffing dish.

Mr. Kuck is now the managing man of the feriods will be because to the perfect rarebit and the read to real habtiness will be a transport to the feriod will be read to r

A. BELMONT, JR., ENGAGED TO WED

Banker's Son Betrothed to Miss Alice de Goicouria, Beautiful Daughter of Stock Exchange engagement of August Belmont, jr. Miss Alice de Goicouria, daughter of Albert V. de Golcouria, a prominent Miss de Golcouria is descended from Miss Johnson literally cooked herself into the heart of Mr. Kuck. A graduate of a school of cookery, she was called to the lifeguards on the beach the legs of a man, fully dressed, who had evidently been caught in the jetty.

The cooker of the lifeguards on the land of Golcouria is descended from an old Spanish family and is twenty years old and very beautiful. She is fond of outdoor life and one of the best women white in the lifeguards on the lifeguards on the lifeguards on the land of land is twenty years old and very beautiful. She is fond of outdoor life and one of the best women white in the lifeguards on the lifeguards of the lifeguards on the lifeguards of the l women whips in the country.

clerk, beginning as his barent did, and then being advanced until he is a part-ner in the hous.

This was the method followed by his father under the elder Belmont.

Mr. Belmont, in confirming his son's ngagement before starting on the line of the West to-day, said it was one that ave him great graffication.

SUESINE SILK THE SILK THAT WEARS

Bright, new and fresh this season-nothing like it was ever shown before. Suesine Silk has all the beauty of China Silk, wears twice as well because of the touch of cotton in it, and costs less than half. If your dealer is "out" of Suesine Silk, write to us for samples, and give us his name.

FOR SALE EVERYWHERE. Write your dealer for sample. BEDFORD MILLS INTRODUCERS OF SEIDE GLACE Third and Mercer Sts., New York City.

Oak Dresser, '8.98 188 3d Av., bet. 119th-120th St.

French Lace Curtains Special Values To-morrow

Regular Prices $18.50 and 23.50 Per Pair.

Stern Brothers

Lacet Arabe Curtains, $16.50, $18.50

West Twenty-third Street.